Guidelines for Prospective Authors

Praeclarus Press is a new small press founded by Kathleen Kendall-Tackett, Ph.D., IBCLC, FAPA, a health psychologist and board-certified lactation consultant, with more than 18 years of experience as both an author and editor. Praeclarus is the Latin word for “excellent.”

Our List

Praeclarus Press publishes books in women’s health. We are interested in titles on women’s health throughout the lifespan including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding, and parenting. We are also interested in titles on depression, trauma and violence, cardiovascular health, successful aging, and alternative healthcare modalities. Books we publish are evidence-based, but written in an accessible, user-friendly style.

Contact Us

If you have an idea for a book, we would love to talk with you about it. If your idea is promising, we will ask you for a full book proposal. Please see our handout, How to Write a Book Proposal, for more specific instructions on what you will need to do next.

We are always looking for interesting book ideas. Our next great book could be yours!
