I loved the warm feeling I was left with after reading this book....I wish this amazing resource was available before my wife and I had our first.

—Scott Sherwood, Executive Director, U.S. Lactation Consultant Association

Salle Webber describes simply and eloquently what every doula (and grandparent!) needs to know to be of genuine help to new families....It's a profound work that I hope will have a great impact.

—Nancy Mohrbacher, IBCLC, FILCA, author Breastfeeding Answers Made Simple and co-author of *Breastfeeding Made Simple: Seven Natural Laws for Nursing Mothers

A gem of a book....Webber provides a heart-centered model to get families...off to the best possible start.

—Marian Tompson, Founder, La Leche League International, author, *Passionate Journey: My Unexpected Life

Salle Webber has been serving families as a professional postpartum doula in Santa Cruz, California since 1988, and has been a teacher of the gentle art of caring for families with newborns. She is known for her wisdom, humor, and tender touch with babies and mothers.
